FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

World-renowned Autism Spectrum Disorder speaker Dr. Tony Attwood to present at PEAK San Marcos

Internationally recognized speaker Professor Tony Attwood will present "Strategies to Manage Challenging Behavior and Improve Executive Functioning Skills" at PEAK San Marcos on Oct. 27 in San Marcos, TX.

Dr. Attwood has limited speaking engagements in the United States and has not presented in the U.S. since 2012. The conference, which will be held at the Embassy Suites San Marcos, Hotel, Spa & Conference Center, will focus on topics such as managing challenging behavior, cognitive abilities profile and executive functioning strategies to improve attention, organizational skills, and academic achievement. This conference is appropriate for parents, teachers and professionals. Graduate credit, ASHA, ASWB, APA TOTA, NBCC and Texas CPE hours for educators are offered at this conference.

Professor Tony Attwood, M.SC, Ph.D., A.F.B.Ps.S., M.C.C.Ps is a clinical psychologist who has specialized in autism spectrum disorders since he qualified as a clinical psychologist in England in 1975. He works in his own private practice, and is also adjunct professor at Griffith University, Queensland and senior consultant at the Minds and Hearts clinic in Brisbane. His book Asperger's Syndrome – A Guide for Parents and Professionals has sold over 350,000 copies and has been translated into over 25 languages.

Dr. Attwood has worked with over 8,000 individuals of all ages with Asperger's syndrome or an Autism Spectrum Disorder. Tony presents workshops and runs training courses for parents, professionals and individuals with Asperger's syndrome all over the world and is a prolific author of scientific papers and books on the subject.

The conference will begin at 9 AM on Monday, Oct. 27, with check-in from 8 AM to 8:45 AM. The professional registration rate is $150, and the parent rate is $125. Early Bird rates are available online until Aug. 27. Additional information/registration can be found at http://www.peakconferencegroup.com/conferences.
